■ CD+DVD: CD

Estrella Morente sings and gives homage to 13 women of the twentieth century.

'Mujeres', the third disc of her career, arrives after five years of silence.

Flamenco 'has a better taste when it is done within the family, because we do not feel as good as when we are at home'.

That is why Estrella counts again in this new disc 'Mujeres' on her father, Enrique Morente, as a guide.

Estrella goes through la taranta to la zambra, la bulería to la solea. With her father, she morentizes classics of another gender like 'Ne me quitte pas' of Brel, Nina Simone or 'Volver' of Gardel.
