The most temperamental, tragic and passionate figure in flamenco dancing was also capable of expressing the captivating emotion of the gypsy race as a cantaora (flamenco singer).

An essential pack with spectacular images and hard to find footage of the biggest legend of flamenco dance. Including images from most of her filmography: Short films from the 40's and also scenes from the movies 'Maria de la O' y 'La hija de Juan Simón'. It is a multi-system DVD that is suitable for use in any country. It is PAL and NTSC compatible. It also includes a booklet. El mar me enseñó a bailar... , which is 74 pages long (Spanish with translations into English and French), with her biography and a large number of illustrations, for which Jordi Pujol and Carlos García de Olalla Maristany are responsible. Contains a booklet of 72 pages too, translated in english and french, and photographs of all the life of the artist.
